The reasons for giving priority to MIC College of Engineering to Conduct Chess Selection Trials

- Sri. N. Balasowri, Physical Director is one of the Senior Physical Directors working in the JNTU format. And he acted as Manager for many teams in the erstwhile JNTU.
- MIC College of Engineering is equipped with Air Conditioned Hall with the capacity of 200 participants to play without any disturbance.
- Institute offered to provide accommodation to the participants
- Separate accommodation for Girls participants is planned.
- Boarding facility is extended with reasonable rates in the college canteen
- Chess Association is situated at Vijayawada, technical experts are available for selection trials and to select the best players.

Procedures of the Selections

- The criteria of the selections will be purely on the performance in present state
- The International Chess Competitions rules and regulations will be followed
- The six participants will be selected among all the participants for JNTUK team form both boys and girls irrespective of gender.
